الـغـــرير للـطبـــاعـــة والنشـــر
Al Ghurair Printing and Publishing

ISO 14298:2021
CERTIFIED TO GRAPHIC TECHNOLOGY • MANAGEMENT OF SECURITY PRINTING PROCESSES (MSPP)
POLICY

Al-Ghurair Printing and Publishing's

Policy is to Provide Security Printing Products and Services for the Non-Governmental and Governmental Institutions worldwide by fully meeting their specified requirements / expectations and to comply with relevant regulations, codes and standards.

PURPOSE

Enhancing Life by Printing Ideas.

VISION

Continue to be one of the pioneers in the SECURITY PRINTING INDUSTRY By Providing Security Printing Products and Services.

MISSION

- Continually upgrading infrastructure, Employee technical capabilities, invent and customize in innovative security technologies.
- To Make the customer feel secure by implementing Product Specific Security Printing Concepts to Maintain confidentiality as well as tangible and intangible values, thus contributing to everybody's peace of mind.
- To be a responsive institution committed in building win-win situation for customers and external service providers to develop strong relationship.

AGPP management is committed to:

- Continually review and improve established Management of Security Printing Processes (MSPP) system to comply with the requirements of the standard ISO 14298, Intergraf Certification Requirements (ICR). All the applicable statutory regulatory requirements and client requirements which are specified as well as not specified are determined, understood and continually met.
- Identify and assess all the risks including customer Specified risks as well as not specified risks.
- Monitoring the status of the risk, the residual score by reassessing the risk at critical junctures to ensure that identified risks are dealt with appropriately and to improve MSPP System continually.

AGPP Management shall:

- Take accountability for the effectiveness of MSPP and ensure Security Policy and Objectives are established which are in line with the context and strategic direction of the company and promotes the use of process approach and risk -based thinking.
- Review established security objectives at regular intervals, as part of the MSPP Internal auditing, monitoring and management review processes, in order to maintain Security measures established based on the identified risks.
- Ensure that the Resources needed for the MSPP are available; including training, support and encouragement. Communicate the importance of effective management of Security Printing Processes and conforming to the requirements of ISO 14298 : 2021 and ICR Version 1:2023
- Support other relevant management roles to demonstrate their leadership as it always applies to their areas of responsibility in the implementation and regular review of the MSPP to enable all employees to strive for Customer Satisfaction.
- This policy is communicated to the employee, displayed and made available to all interested parties upon request. Policy will be annually and where deemed necessary, will be amended and re-issued.

Lakshmanan Ganapathy
Executive Vice President

Annexure E

Date: 08th Jan 2024